I couldn't stop laughing at the way you were lapping up that garbage for a buck so I've decided to give away my new recycled suns and stars and other trash for only half a dollar. if you can't afford the streetcar just grab a copy of my new rag

TORANNA PUNKS will continue to progress. we begin clean up in our new office soon and I just got a new type machine. The filing cabinet will be here next week and then all we will need is a permanent address. HELP!

traditionally the marquee is a venue club for bands who are mostly likely to make it. it is a quite well known club and is now frequented by foreign hippies tonight most of the audience was real London in -tic leather and metal. everyone's -ed and there is only one bench. the band -ed out with great energy and the crowd -e all into the pogo. hands glued to the -heri thighs they'd spring up at an -; and throw themselves down on one of their mates so the scrawny leathereo lad - fly through legs and skid on - nose down. from what we've h - these gigs you'd expect the pun - boosted in the face and be co - ch blood, spit and puke but -eaps get lower the band loses - and there is more enthusiasm, in the -wd. here's another commercial rock band counting their money.

believe me Jeffrey Morgan you didnt do much to help out promoting bands from Toronto. Why dont you fucking go to hell with your articles about our scene.

after finishing a short ened tour, the Diodes
played to 2 sellout
crowds at the El Mocambo.

Diodes

the Skulls AKA NUMBSKULLS have spread across worldwide. who knows why they all didnt go to England to become famous but JOEY SHITHEAD went back to BC with his old lady, Simon went to London and I dont know where the fuck Dimwit got to. if anyone sees him tell him to call J.G. because they are looking for a drummer.

That's why I was amazed to see — on the coffee table, copy of the Sunday Star, its pages open to an article on — would you believe — Punk Rock!
"Punk rock!" growls Miss Russell, rolling her eyes heavenward. "What is punk rock? I try to keep up with popular music and I don't make it — more or less — to the Beatles and Elvis Presley, but HONESTLY! The stuff nowadays!
"SOME of these groups, give them two keys and six
chords and they've got a whole evening's program!
And these Sex Pistols! Have you SEEN them? Killing themselves and willing! But everywhere? What is that A. P. 11/1/79"

Elvis Costello

"north american appearances complete sellouts"

"Elvis aim is pure rock and roll"

"worldwide promotion and record sales"

"may become as famous as his namesake"

"if you havent heard him yet, turn on your radio"

We dont care about anything.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Convicted killer Richard Speck has finally admitted being involved in the murders of eight nurses almost 12 years ago while he was high on heroin and whisky.

Teenage HEAD

returned to the Colonial Tavern Feb. 16 only this time it was upstairs in the newly reopened club. Unfortunately it was poorly advertized and on short notice but the punk scene showed up for the event. Honoured guests were Steve Leckie, the Denteens, some Ugly and B Girls. It was a loud, hard hitting show and Frankie Venom was in fine form. The crowd were glad to see these guys back up on the stage since they played Davids at xmas but the atmosphere at the Colonial just couldnt get the energy happening. There wasnt any room to let loose and the usual frenzy from a band like the Head was sedated.

some members need haircuts

Local punk crash pad the DON JAIL will be torn down by Davids wrecking crew.

Fuck of Gnoids

Somehow or another the El Mocambo snoids thought that the Romantics are a punk rock band. The rumor was heightened with the arrival of certain people from the scene in Toronto and a few beer glasses were thrown. After a great set from the ROMANTICS and after a couple of numbers from the Detective all the punks converged upstairs in the Romantics dressing room. There were no people left to see the Detective so (being a snoid band) they thought it was a plot and their lead singer got insecure when Anya wouldn't take a light from him. Anyway the Romantics got fucked up the ass for their 3 night gig. They will be coming back to headline their own gig in the near future.

As an interim Government withdrawing from the $1.5-billion strandings.

after me and torcher were thrown out of the ISSABELLA we didnt have any money to get home so we went and read a copy of SHADES in the cemetery. when we <sup>cr</sup>ashed out we thought about the great story that they wrote about the UGLY as we wrapped ourselves in the warm newsprint. what a great fire it made around 7 in the morning when it got cold and we warmed up a can of smoked oysters that were frozen in tonis pocket
